SECTION 01

Campaign Big Idea

CAMPAIGN NAME

"The Mumbai Standard"

Mumbai is the world's ultimate stress test for a fragrance. 32°C heat, 90% humidity, auto-rickshaws, crowded locals, back-to-back meetings, and late-night outings. If a vegan perfume can last a full Mumbai day — it can last anywhere. Eze doesn't just claim longevity. It proves it, publicly, in the toughest city on earth.

CORE INSIGHT

Every Indian in Mumbai has a shared, visceral experience of the city's brutal conditions. By making Mumbai the independent tester, Eze turns a product claim into a public challenge — inviting scrutiny instead of avoiding it. This is radical brand confidence.

Why This Campaign Will Work

- Hyper-local resonance — "Mumbai proof" is a shared, visceral experience for 30M+ people. Not a tagline. A truth.
- Testable in real-time — The audience can participate and create their own versions, generating organic UGC loops automatically.
- Kills the #1 objection — "Vegan perfume won't last." We answer it with proof, not promises.

- Infinitely scalable — "The Bangalore Traffic Test," "The Delhi Winter Commute" — the framework scales to every Indian city.
- Series content engine — Daily check-ins, multiple creators, infinite angles. One campaign idea, weeks of content.

SECTION 02

Campaign Structure

P1

WEEK 1–2

HOOK — The Challenge Announcement

Founder/team member sprays Eze at 8 AM on camera with phone time visible. Caption: "Everyone says natural perfume doesn't last. I'm letting Mumbai decide. Follow along." Ends with: "Drop a 🌱 if you want the 6 PM update."

Also launch: "Vegan perfumes don't last. Okay, watch this." — time-lapse paper strip check at 8 AM, 12 PM, 4 PM, 8 PM. Goal: Generate saves from skeptical audiences before they even try the product.

P2

WEEK 3–8

MAIN SERIES — "The Standard" Episodes

Episode arc: Morning spray → The Commute (auto, local train) → Midday check ✅ → Evening test ✅ → Final verdict ("I look exhausted. The scent? Still going.") Simultaneously, activate #EzeMumbaiStandard UGC campaign — invite audience to film their own day with Eze using the template.

P3

ONGOING

ENGAGEMENT LOOPS — The City Wars

"Is Mumbai harder than Bangalore heat?" — poll in Stories. "Which city should we test next?" — comment thread. Each response generates content for next episode. Plus: every UGC post gets a branded comment asking followers to rate the scent family (🌸/🌲/🍊/🌙) — drives comment volume that pushes content further algorithmically.

P4

WEEK 6–8

CONVERSION — The Mumbai Bundle

Retargeting ads for viewers who watched >75% of challenge videos. Limited edition "Mumbai Standard" bundle: 30ml + free travel pouch. Urgency CTA: "Only 500 bundles. Tested by Mumbai. Ready for you." Email capture via "Get the Mumbai Test Results PDF" lead magnet.
